Notice Concerning the Attack at Group Company Nitta Gelatin India Ltd.

The head office of Group company Nitta Gelatin India Ltd. in the State of Kerala, India, was attacked by a group of nine armed men at about 8 a.m. (local time) on November 10, 2014.

Fortunately, no employees or others were injured in this attack, and there was no damage to production equipment in the factory. Items including cars within the company's property, office doors, fixtures and computers were vandalized. The office returned to work as normal on the day following the attack.

The attackers, claiming to be members of the Communist Party of India (Maoist), left a note protesting that drainage water from Nitta Gelatin India Ltd.'s plant was causing environmental pollution. However, the Group company denies that allegation and operates in full compliance with laws and regulations.

Currently, local police are investigating the case and searching for the perpetrators. The Nitta Gelatin Group is actively cooperating with the investigation to rapidly conclude the case.
